[New graduate / mid-career recruitment] RECRUITMENT of DESIGN STAFF

We welcome those who are enthusiastic about creating rich and new products. Unlike a large design office, You can take responsibility for at least one project and take charge of it comprehensively in our office. Sometimes multiple people collaborate in the competition to improve the design skill. We are working on a variety of projects at home and abroad, from small projects such as furniture and pavilions to residential, public facilities, commercial facilities and large urban redevelopment. We also collaborate with professionals in various fields. We would like to invite people who are thinking about independence, those who want to improve their skills with a sense of purpose, and those who are interested in anything and can work on it.

Number of hires Multiple design staff

Hiring time We welcome those who can participate in the trial immediately, but consultation is possible.
